Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 1 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Species A: directed towards a thermal processing container comprising a heating and cooling unit and a lid provided to lower part of the container to open and close the opening and the outer periphery upper portion of the inner lid part is located inside the outer periphery edge of the lower end surface of the opening part.

Species B: directed towards a thermal processing container comprising a first flange provided at an outside periphery of the opening part located higher than the lower end surface of the opening part and a second flange located lower than the upper end surface of the inner lid part.

Species C: directed toward a thermal processing container comprising a fourth flange provided on the lower portion of the inner lid part and a second flange holder is provided on the outer lid part located between the lower end surface of the opening part and an upper surface of the fourth flange to hold the fourth flange.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Species A: Claims 1 - 4 and 8

Species B: Claims 5 – 7 and 9

Species C: Claims 10 - 12

None of the claims are generic.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Species A: thermal processing apparatus comprising a heating unit, a cooling unit and flange surfaces having mirror finish.

Species B: thermal processing apparatus comprising a first flange provided at an outside periphery of the opening part located higher than the lower end surface of the opening part and a second flange located lower than the upper end surface of the inner lid part.

Species C: thermal processing apparatus comprising a second flange holder provided on the outer lid part and a liquid receiving part capable of receiving an aqueous solution on the upper surface of the inner lid part.

As can be seen, Species A, Species B and Species C have different special technical features.
